Section B: Separation Documentation

This section is only if the response to the current parent's marital status is SEPARATED in Section A of this form.

Marital separation is defined as: (a) one of the partners has left the household for an indefinite period; AND (b) the marriage is permanently severed. If your circumstance does not meet BOTH parts of this definition, then you are required to report your spouse's information on the FAFSA. In order for us to verify the status of separation, please provide all of the following items:

- PROOF OF SEPARATE RESIDENCES: Provide proof that the parents live at separate residences, as of the date of separation, by submitting copies of: a lease/contract agreements showing each spouse is maintaining a different residence OR separate utility bills such as water/electric/gas. Hand written letters will not be accepted.
Note: P.O. Boxes do not qualify as proof of separate residences.
- TAX RETURN(S) AND W2's: Submit the 2017 Federal Income Tax Return and 2017 W2's for the parents. (Be sure to include all 1099-Rs and schedules – if applicable)
- REFERENCE LETTERS: Please attach two letters from reputable and impartial third party sources who can endorse confirmation of the separation claim. For example, clergy person, marriage counselor, and/or an attorney can provide such a letter. The letters should state the date of separation, living arrangements, length of time they have known the parent and their knowledge of these events. Please make sure it is legible and includes the person's full printed name, address, contact information, and their signature.

Documentation submitted must be reviewed and approved before financial aid will be awarded. Submission of the requested documentation does not guarantee approval.
